

Buried Alive

Front Line Assembly

Welcome to the arena of pain
Where everyone is a victim
We all are to blame
Welcome to the palace of fate
Morbid transformations
Distorted complications[Chorus]
Alluring Disfiguration
Cruel Intentions
Cuts my skin alive
Infested with your sickened fascination
You need to be buried alive This paradise which burns from within Resurrected from an empty space of sin
Fearless contemplation discarding the human race
Flying under the radar of life[Chorus] Nocturnal cold emotions
Feeling out of place
A shameless hallucination
A sacred eternal waste
Welcome to the palace of fate
Morbid transformations
Distorted complications[Chorus]
