

The Warmth

Incubus

I'd like to close my eyes, go numb
But there's a cold wind coming from
The top of the highest high rise today It's not a breeze 'cuz it blows hard
Yes and it wants me to discard
The humanity I know, watched the warmth blow away So don't let the world bring you down
Not everyone here is that fucked up and cold
Remember why you came and while you're alive
Experience the warmth before you grow old So do you think I should adhere
To that pressing new frontier
And leave in my wake, a trail of fear Should I hold my head up high?
And throw a wrench and spokes by
I'm leaving the air behind me clear So don't let the world bring you down
Not everyone here is that fucked up and cold
Remember why you came and while you're alive
Experience the warmth before you grow, before you grow old So don't let the world bring you down
Not everyone here is that fucked up and cold
Remember why you came and while you're alive
Experience the warmth before you grow old, before you grow old Where did it go?
Where did it go?
Where did it go?
Where did it go?
