Sealed With a Fist

Exodus

The honeymoon's over
And the love's gone sour
Her nagging has got you down
But you picked the Wrong way to deal with it
You chose to slap her around
When you exchanged your Wedding vows, nobody said
"You may now fist the bride"
Now that the little woman
Went and got her gun
The love ain't all that died{Chorus}:
Jealousy
She knows you can't live without it
The bullet's speed
Cutting right through all your bullshit
Wedded bliss
Began for her, when the bullets hit
Sixteen rounds, in case she missed
Sealed with a fistWhen she took your hand in marriage
It didn't mean right across the face
Small woman, big man
It takes alot of guts
You're just a pussy in the first place
But now that your wedding chamber's
The one the bullet's in
Brave man, look at you, not so tough
When the hammer's cockin'{Chorus}~ Solo - Hunolt ~~ Solo - Holt ~The little woman had all the shit
That she could take
Her intuition said, "Lock and load"
He-man, what's your plan
To get out of this, she's gonna
Fill your ass with bullet holes
Guess who's bigger
When she's squeezing the trigger
I got news, it isn't you
When they carry your body out
Over the threshold
You'll wish you never said I do{Chorus}
