

Sealed With a Fist

Exodus

The honeymoon's over
And the love's gone sour
Her nagging has got you down
 But you picked the Wrong way to deal with it
You chose to slap her around
 When you exchanged your Wedding vows, nobody said
 "You may now fist the bride"
 Now that the little woman
 Went and got her gun
The love ain't all that died{Chorus}:
 Jealousy
 She knows you can't live without it
 The bullet's speed
Cutting right through all your bullshit
 Wedded bliss
 Began for her, when the bullets hit
 Sixteen rounds, in case she missed
Sealed with a fistWhen she took your hand in marriage
 It didn't mean right across the face
 Small woman, big man
 It takes a lot of guts
 You're just a pussy in the first place
 But now that your wedding chamber's
 The one the bullet's in
 Brave man, look at you, not so tough
When the hammer's cockin'{Chorus}~ Solo - Hunolt ~~ Solo - Holt ~The little woman had all the shit
 That she could take
 Her intuition said, "Lock and load"
 He-man, what's your plan
 To get out of this, she's gonna
 Fill your ass with bullet holes
 Guess who's bigger
When she's squeezing the trigger
 I got news, it isn't you
When they carry your body out
 Over the threshold
You'll wish you never said I do{Chorus}
