

Love Turns Wild

Opensouls

Somebody told me
That you were in France
So I travelled
To where you are
I jumped a plane
And bussed it for miles
I walked through the city
And when I arrived I saw your face
And her face too
You're the one thing
That I wasn't prepared to lose
I reached in my pocket
And pulled out some change
I stared at you blankly
You looked at me real strange
You had no money
And I had a lot
I would have given you
All that I got But I saw your face
And her face too
That's the one thing
That I wasn't prepared to do I'm gonna ride
And rest along the line
I'm gonna ride
And rest along the line
When change goes down
Love goes into Wild When I am tired
Real tired
But before I go home
I'll go to new York
And buy me some whiskey
And get me real stoned
To find the pleasure
In being alone I'm gonna ride
And rest along the line
I'm gonna ride
And rest along the line When change goes down
Love goes into Wild When change goes down
Love goes into Wild
