(Do The) Instant Mash

Joe Jackson

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

In the supermarket there is music while you work
It drives you crazy, sends you screamin' for the door
Work there for a year or two and you can't get to like it
I don't work in supermarkets anymoreIt's so easy, it's so easy
Grab can, lift arm, stack can, turn around
It's so easy, it's so easy
Do the instant mash, do the instant mash
Do the instant mash, make an instant smash
Doin' the instant mashIn the discorama there's a DJ tries to charm ya
They got flashin' lights to dance to, if you're shy
Red for treble, green for bass, they're wired in sequence round the place
You wait till ten, then try take off your tieIt's so easy, it's so easy
Lift hand, flick wrist, drop hand, turn around
It's so easy, it's so easy
Do the instant mash, do the instant mash
Do the instant mash, make some instant cash
Doin' the instant mashIn the cinema tonight, they sit and watch the robots fight
The human beings don't have much to say
Robots makin' lots of cash and all they eat is instant mash
Oh wouldn't you just love to be that way?It's so easy, it's so easy
Heat it, beat it, eat it, turn around
It's so easy, it's so easy
Do the instant mash, do the instant mash
Do the instant mash, make an instant smash
Doin' the instant mash
