Red In Tooth Claw

Memphis May Fire

It always ends the same.
I gave you all my heart
Just to watch it get thrown away, thrown away!
It takes a toll on my soul
'Cause I'm starting to believe
That love's just a game we play.
Is it all just a game?One day I'll heal but I'll be covered in scars,
And I'll never forget watching it all fall apart
When you finally came clean about the lies
And the games that you played from the start.
It's like every second we spent together
Is always on repeat in the back of my mind.
What was I thinking when I gave you my life?
You knew it would end, you knew this would die!You'll never find another one like me.I think I'd give you another chance if you deserved one.
I think I'd have room in my heart but I simply reserved none.
I'd let you beg on your knees for forgiveness at last
But you're just a mistake, please give me my life back.You made me so insecure and unsure of everything I thought was real.
I just wish I could rewind and go back to a time
When I knew what it was like to feel.
I hope someday someone ruins you the way you ruined me!
I just want you to know how it feels.
I want you to see it's like my heart was made to be broken.
Why can't I let go? Now that it's over I just need you to knowI think I'd give you another chance if you deserved one.
I think I'd have room in my heart but I simply reserved none.
I'd let you beg on your knees for forgiveness at last
But you're just a mistake, please give me
Give me my life back.They say it's better to have loved than never at all,
But I can't seem to find any good in being thrown at the wall.
I'm not sure if I can stand up from this fall!
I lay tossing and turning and trying to forget.
I thought I'd be over you by now.
With all you put me through I'm full of regret.
I wish I could just forget somehow!
You'll never find another one like me!I think I'd give you another chance if you deserved one.
I think I'd have room in my heart but I simply reserved none.
I'd let you beg on your knees for forgiveness at last

But you're just a mistake, please give me my life back.
Please give me my life back! Give me my life back!
Give me my life!
