All I Need Is One

Watsky

Lying awake in a strangers town
Hearing my heart make a broken sound
As I'm wondering about you
And what youre doing nowTaking a breath and remembering
Full of regret for so many things
I reach out in the darkness
To wherever you areTheres a thousand miles
And a million tears between us
And I cant undo what Ive done
And I'm sure theres a hundred ways
I can tell you that I'm sorry
But when it comes down to a second chance
All I need is oneTime is road going just one way
Cant turn around back to yesterday
If I knew how to do that I know I wouldnt be hereWhat if I told you I loved you still Thats something that distance and time wont kill
And it sure makes you lonely
When you do it aloneTheres a thousand miles
And a million tears between us
And I cant undo what Ive done
And I'm sure theres a hundred ways
I can tell you that I'm sorry
But when it comes down to a second chance
All I need is one night with you to find tomorrowJust one right to wipe away the wrong
And I cant undo what Ive done
And I'm sure theres a hundred ways
I can tell you that I'm sorry
But when it comes down to a second chance
All I need is oneLying awake in a strangers town
Hearing my heart make a broken sound
As I'm wondering about you
And what youre doing now
