

Obscured

Smashing Pumpkins

Lost your head, now you sleep on the floor
What you said, I don't want anymore
Through the haze, make your eyes up to ache
Out in space, days away Through these eyes, I rely on all I see
Obscured through these eyes
Looks like I'm home tonight Left for dead as you sweep out the car
Things we said we don't mean anymore
Tear inside her like a fallen kite
Hah, hah, hah, hey, hey, yeah Through these eyes, I deny, although I see
Obscured through these eyes
Looks like I'm home tonight
