No Place Left to Hide

Jessica Hernandez & The Deltas

Hunt you down, going nowhere,
no place left to hide.
Hunt you down, going nowhere,
time ain't on your side.
Walls come down, ends up dropped down,
know just what I'd find.
Walls come down,ends up dropped down,
no place left to hide.So I go around, singing some bad news,
singing time break, singing far from you.
So I go around, round, singing some bad news, and I've given up on giving in to you.Hunt you down, going nowhere,
no place left to hide.
Hunt you down, going nowhere,
time ain't on your side.
Walls come down, ends up dropped down,
know just what I'd find.
Walls come down,ends up dropped down,
no place left to hide.So I go around, singing some bad news,
singing time break, singing far from you.
So I go around, round, singing some bad news, and I've given up on giving in to you.Said that you want it, said that you need it, said that I got it all.You got me crawling under,
you got me crawling down.
You got sinking so low for you.
You got me crawling under,
you got me crawling down.
You got sinking away.Said I don't want it,
said I don't need it,
said your're going down.
But I want you bad,
and I'm oh so mad,
got me crawlin' round.Said I don't want it,
said I don't need it,
said you're doing down.
But I want you bad,
and I'm oh so mad,
got me crawlin' round.Hunt you down, going nowhere,
no place left to hide.

Hunt you down, going nowhere,
time ain't on your side.
Walls come down, ends up dropped down,
know just what I'd find.
Walls come down,ends up dropped down,
no place left to hide.
