Kill the King

Primal Scream

You said making love is a form of violence
You said victory is all, i don't believe in you
The mind behind the the man behind the gun
Behind the bullet in the skull
Is part of everyone
We all can kill we've got the will
The demon seed is planted deep
In our subconscious fear is king
Fear rots inside everything
Kill the kingYou said you would kill
If it helped to change the world
You said you would take a life
How many life's are worth freedom
The mind behind the man behind the gun
Behind the bullet in the skull
Is part of everyone
We all can kill we've got the will
The demon seed is planted deep
In our subconscious fear is king
Fear rots inside everything
Kill the king
