In Another Life

Fyval

Youâ€™ll never be alone.
Youâ€™ll never feel alone again.
Feels like coming home ,I wonâ€™t let you down my friend.
There is something about the two of us , Itâ€™s unexplainable I just lose myself when you are close to me.
I know you, I know you well, but I donâ€™t recognise myself.
Donâ€™t know why I hate to watch you leave
In another life We could be together , waited all my life for my happy ever after. Thought youâ€™d come here to save me , foolish but maybe in another life Youâ€™ll be mine.
Youâ€™ll never be alone.
Youâ€™ll never feel alone again.
Things are never easy for us I know , but Iâ€™m tired of just playing pretend
There is something about the two of us ,itâ€™s unexplainable I just lose myself when you are close to me
In another life We could be together , waited all my life for my happy ever after
Thought youâ€™d come here to save me, foolish but maybe in another life
Youâ€™ll be mine
In another life we could be together waited all my life for youâ€¦.
