The Wicked Window

Saviour Machine

Watching me, watching me
Look and see
Nothing and no one is safe
The ministry enslaves
Stay asleep
Keep unto your dream
Keep unto your dream
Lie down and bow to the lies
The wicked window's eyes
The wicked window's eyes - they penetrate illusion
The wicked window's eyes - tear down your wall
The wicked window's eyes - they fortify the lies
The wicked window's eyes - they hypnotize the others
The wicked window's eyes - then horrifies my eyes
Peepshow, creepshow
Peepshow, freakshow
Open the vault to voices within
Cry from the depth of the grave
Shadows may follow the essence of men
Tried for the death of the slave
Suddenly someone is there at the door
Waiting to show you the way
Fortress of eminence waits in the wings
Watching me wear down them all
Central intelligence agency freaks
Listen to every call
Call me, call me, call me the one
See me, see me, I'll never run
Watch me, watch me, watch me perceive
Make me, make me, make me believe
Watch me tear down your wall
Tear down your wall
Tear down your wall
