

Kiss the Flames

Midnight Reign

I never wanted die
Just couldn't live anymore
I never wanted to say goodbye
Just couldn't give anyway I spent my life in hell for you
I live my life in hell
Can't you tell I'm not scared?
I'm gonna kiss the flames...When you fall I'll be the last thing that you see,
So play your role slave you fuckin' wanna be You couldn't look in my eyes, you think I worship you?
You want me on my knees? You'll get more than you bargained for... You killed your son you'd lie to me
How could you kill your fucking son?
I'm gonna piss on your god's grave, "I'm gonna fuck your virgin whore..." Chorus I woke up in hell again, await the dose of adrenaline
The cocaine couldn't kill what makes me bleed,
So the dealer cut the line `cause I'm in desperate need
All alone so afraid, what do you mean that Jesus saves?
Why won't he save me from this pain? Chorus
