

Risk It All

Escape the Fate

They said, say a prayer for the sinners
Say a prayer for the other side
Head down do what you told
Shut you mouth believe the liesIs anyone wrong?
They didn't know my name
Is anyone wrong?
I put em all to shameI'm the one that took a chance
I'm the the one that took a leap of faith
Only know what matters but with dignity
I stood my ground and found my placeSo now the y run run run! they just run run run!
Like animals outta the cage
Sometimes you just gotta stand on the edge
Sometimes you gotta risk it all
Lets risk it allYea!Don't waste your time with an attitude
Don't hold back
Just let it scream
You know the one with the light inside
There the ones who have the dissesIs anyone wrong?
They didn't know my name
Is anyone wrong?
I put em all to shameI'm the one that took a chance
I'm the the one that took a leap of faith
Only know what matters but with dignity
I stood my ground and found my placeSo now the y run run run! they just run run run!
Like animals outta the cage
Sometimes you just gotta stand on the edge
Sometimes you gotta risk it all
Lets risk it allYea!There it comes like an ancour
You will never rise never stand up
There it comes like an ancour
You will never rise never stand upOh whoa, oh whoa, oh whoa, yea!I'm the the one that took a leap of faith
Only know what matters but with dignity
I stood my ground and found my placeSo now the y run run run! they just run run run!
Like animals outta the cage
Sometimes you just gotta stand on the edge
Sometimes you gotta risk it all
Lets risk it all
Lets risk it all!
