Payback

Backyard Babies

C'mon and let my lips do the talkin'
Let my creepers do the walkin'
Let my fingers do the shivering'Til ma body starts achin'
And your hips start shakin'
While I'm sippin' bloody Mary
'Cause that Mary fuckin' scares meHey, wow
Well, I've heard that a million times
But now it's payback time
'Cos I've heard that a million times
But now it's payback timeWell, I'm stranded by the standard
And my ego has just landed
Now the document's been handedTo ma supervisor, criticizer
A and R's and movie stars
Managers and editors
Yes or no? But hey, of courseHey, wow
Well, I've heard that a million times
But now it's payback time
'Cos I've heard that a million times
But now it's payback timeNo I don't need no invitation
All I needed was a little patienceHey, wow
Well, I've heard that a million times
But now it's payback time
'Cos I've heard that a million times
But now it's payback timeWell, I've heard that a million times
But now it's payback time
'Cos I've heard that a million times
But now it's payback timeWell, I've heard that a million times
But now it's payback time
'Cos I've heard that a million times
But now it's payback timeWell, I've heard that a million times
But now it's payback time
'Cos I've heard that a million times
