

Rejection

40 Below Summer

Why'd you take that away from me?
Just one taste and I needed a little more of your sweet honey I want you to feel my pain, I want you, don't walk away
I need you, the time is right, I need to hold you tight Rejection, I can't believe you're gone
Rejection, why'd you have to walk away?
Rejection, I can't believe you're gone
Rejection, now, it's time to turn the page Rejection, what the fuck did I do?
Rejection, why'd you have to walk away?
Rejection, you broke me in two
Rejection, rejection What the fuck did I do?
What did I do to deserve the blame?
Remember this, and don't forget my name that's Bitch, you know my name, handle this shit before I rope ya
I'm gonna slit your throat before I smoke ya Bet it all but you don't own me
You tried to punk me but you don't know me
You tried to blow me off without no question
You better pray for divine intervention Don't walk away, just run away You really didn't think I'd let you walk away from me
Just one more time, I need to feel your lips around this piece If you could come my way, what could I do to make you stay?
Then you could penetrate my life then you'd rip me up inside Rejection, I can't believe you're gone
Rejection, why'd you have to walk away?
Rejection, I can't believe you're gone
Rejection, now, it's time to turn the page Rejection, what the fuck did I do?
Rejection, why'd you have to walk away?
Rejection, you broke me in two
Rejection, rejection Pushing and crushing me down on my knees
Taking and breaking and making me scream
I can't contain this I'll make you all bleed
You've opened me up now, you'll feel my disease In my suffering
(Stop)
Suffering
(Dying too) In my suffering
(Stop)
Suffering
(Dying too) In my suffering
(Stop)
Suffering
(Dying too) In my suffering

(Stop)
Suffering, dying too
Even in my suffering
I'll make you believe You can't believe I'll make you disappear
Occurred to me and then it became clear
Rejected me, oh no, I don't think so
I'll take you out quick, don't even blink so You cut me up and hung me out to dry Got your itch like a bitch, you made me cry but Retribution, confusion, illusion hairline fracture, multiple contusion Don't walk away, just run away
