

The Rest Will Flow

Porcupine Tree

[Written by Steven Wilson] I was pretending to be floating strong
But I was sinking
In to still water Eyes closed
All of the rest will flow Then out of darkness I found I could still feel
Something good
Out of the woods Eyes closed
All of the rest will flow One simple thing that I never could see
But now I know
All of the rest will flow Stay with me my angel I found you
Now I don't feel low
All of the rest will flow Eyes closed
All of the rest will flow
