

Ashes of the Dawn

DragonForce

Trapped in this maze of existence and doomed by misery,
I was blinded by my fears
Lost in the dark through the shadows I heard you scream my name
Oh help me, please, out of this nightmare!
All my life I've been playing with fire, set me free that's my only desire
The time has come for me,
The time to overcome and do what is right for the world to see
And from the Ashes of the dawn I arise
The time has come for me,
The time to overcome and do what is right for the world to see
And from the Ashes of the dawn I arise
Fear deep inside, is it madness that fuel my extasy
Now I'm drowning in my sorrows
Lord answer my prayers, locked in despair, is this the end
Breaking the silence so real, we'll make it together
All my dreams have been torn into pieces
Hear the screams of my eternal pain
The time has come for me,
The time to overcome and do what is right for the world to see
And from the Ashes of the dawn I arise
The time has come for me,
The time to overcome and do what is right for the world to see
And from the Ashes of the dawn I arise
YEEEEAAAH YEEEEAAAH YEAAHH
[SOLO]
I have seen a sorrow in your eyes
How I wish I'd make things better,
Find the strenght to leave the past behind,
Just one more time, we'll live again
The time has come for me,
The time to overcome and do what is right for the world to see
And from the Ashes of the dawn I arise
The time has come for me,
The time to overcome and do what is right for the world to see
And from the Ashes of the dawn I arise
For the FIRE!
