

Intro (feat. emalyn)

Crywolf

Once I was afraid that I'd find you
Your patient, trembling eyes would unwind me
And all I've become
Once I was afraid I'd fall in love with you
For the first time Let's go set fire to all these houses
The smoke will billow up with our laughter
The flames will lick your skin
And I'll fall in love with you
For the first time For the first time
