afrodite

imani coppola

And she calls herself Aphrodite
She'll make you feel high and mighty
She got, she got, she got a goddess complex
And she knows just how you like it she's so
She's so unusual but she's sad and lonely
Acting real phony, just listen to what she saysBaby, step in line for my love
It comes once in a lifetime
I am one of a kind, I'm an original
Baby, step in life for my love
It comes once in a lifetime
I am one of a kind, I'm an originalAnd I heard she reeled you in with her song Song of the siren, but you couldn't
You couldn't, you couldn't, you couldn't restrain yourself
And you left her there, because all is fair when you get some
She wipes her tears away as she calls to the next oneBaby, step in life for my love
It comes once in a lifetime
I am one of a kind, I'm an original
Baby, step in line for my love
It comes once in a lifetime
I am one of a kind, I'm an originalMy love is fictional, I can be an original
I can give you what you need
I can play make believe
Ecstasy I will be your fantasy
It don't bother me, I'm an originalBaby, step in line for my love
It comes once in a lifetime
I am one of a kind, I'm an original
Baby, step in line for my love
It comes once in a lifetime
I am one of a kind, I'm an originalBaby, step in line for my love
It comes once in a lifetime
I am one of a kind, I'm an original
Baby, I'm an original
Baby, step in line for my love
