

You Look So Good

Owen Brady

When i walked out of this,
I couldn't feel but sorrow.
I never thought of what I would miss,
Or return that I'd borrowedBut you, you look so good tonight
I can't turn my eyes away.
And you are the only one who could have my heart to playSo I found another fool for my distraction >>
Still I cannot over rule the law of attraction'Cause you, you look so good tonight
I can't turn my eyes away.
And you are the only one who could have my heart to playBut whatever I say you should refuse
When you got everything,
You've got everything to lose
Better yet, sing nothing at all
Sing nothing at allYou, you look so good tonight
I can't turn my eyes away
You are the only one
Who could have my heart'Cause you, you look so good tonight
I can't turn my eyes away.
And you are the only one
Who could have my heart to play
