Cash And Prizes

Del Amitri

I've got cash and prizes more than a man could dream
I've got a hundred houses, some that I've never seen
I've got walls of paintings high as the Hoover Dam
I've got cash and prizes but I don't know who I amI've got a thousand people act on my every word
Point at the sky above me and I own every bird
I've got a wife who holds me in her diamond studded hands
I've got cash and prizes but I don't know who I amI've got buildings, I've got planes
That light the skyline with my name
I am everywhere but here, a colossus on the index
But touch the cancel key and I just disappearI've got cash and prizes 'cause I've got the stuff it takes I've got a Rolls Royce running just 'cause I love the sound it makes
I've got two sons competing to be the images of me
But cash and prizes, I guess, is all that they can seeCash and prizes
Cash and prizes
Cash and prizes
Cash and prizesCash and prizes
Cash and prizes
Cash and prizes
(Cash and prizes)
Cash and prizes
