Hot topic is a contrived identification
With youth subcultures to manufacture
An anti-authoritarian identity and make millions
The 8 dollars you paid for the Mudvayne poster
Would be better spent used to see your brother's friend's band
DIY ethics are punk rock, starting your own label is punk rock
G.G. Allin was punk rock
But when a crass corporate vulture
Feeds on mass-consumer culture
This spending mommy's money is not punk rock
