

Our Way (Live At the Starwood, December 3, 1980)

Germs

Clara would be proud to know us
We've taken it to the end
Where the gray turns to black
And the white just begins We live everyday on the water
The night just kills the pain
From the suffering that was
We are no stronger, we are dust Down in the crowd
We're down on our knees
Wanna get out but
Don't wanna succeed We're the red-eyed legends
Of the night before
We're the dead mind babies
Of the TV war
