JayteKz

Hey mr Wilson can you hear me I got a question for ya weâ€™re you fucking thinking clearly? You pulled the trigger right because you felt threaten but that donâ€™t mean you shoot him 5 times without no questions so listen Micheal I pray that you Rest In Peace because it ainâ€™t fair for you to be shot down within these streets I canâ€™t imagine what your family is going through fuck the media and what they say cause we know the truth so fuck em, fuck em all man theyâ€™ll take us out one by one just to see us fall. Who do we call when theyâ€™re ainâ€™t no courts are malfunction all consume with Corruption Listen to me closely listen to my pain these are peopleâ€™s lives dawg this ainâ€™t no game this ainâ€™t no story this shit is really happening people dying daily and the government just laughs em... itâ€™s like my voice ainâ€™t being heard I try to spread the word but they just kick me the curb they say Iâ€™m ignorant for speaking my beliefs but what if it was yours that got shot down and became Deceased I ainâ€™t reaching out for violence tho Iâ€™m speaking out so I can finally break the silence..so many victims to the system of protection. So many lost lives no longer here cause of laws neglection I just hope that this comes to an end cause if it donâ€™t we have no choice but to defend to stand for what we love to stand for what is right letâ€™s put our guns down and come together letâ€™s all unite so we can make a change If we can work together so we can make a change that will last forever
