

We Dug a Hole

Kathryn Williams

You said
ClichÃ©s come from the truth
Of beauty that every one feels they can own
Is then truth
Being rubbed out or watered downWe dug a hole
To keep everyone out of view
We dug a hole
Hoped it was big enough.The water was like creased old leather
Lit by a bare bulb
And we talked about the swirly island watersThey dug a hole
To keep everyone out of view
They dug a hole
?Late into the night
Through dried up popcorn and sticky carpets
Words danced upwards
To tired out lyricsThey dug a hole
To keep everything out of view
They dug a hole
Warmer than wood, old and safe ?
Warmer than wood, old and safe ?
Warmer than wood, old and safe ?
