Disgusted by the Light

Ghost Brigade

They're gonna grill the truth out of you
Compression for everyone
It's not a miracle how you break
Seeing the signs of declining
No one is going to help you out
It's like the breeding horsesYou told me how you've been, been waitingAlways praising final hours
Like the time was never right
Able to sense the rising light
Yet still feels I'm sinking
Never beared no resemblance
Against any living soulYou told me how you've been, been waitingSurrounding cold makes me smile
I saw the animal in you, raise skies
Surrounding cold makes me smile
I saw the animal in you raise skies
The time is nowThe light is with me, the rest of me is gone
Need no help to save myself
This is my hell, go find your own one
This is my hell, go find your own oneYou will fail, you will see
You will see the difference
