To the East

Electrelane

You din't aground in this flag-wavin
I saw you waiting for the train
And you disappeared
Your face pressed up to the window
You went so far away and I want to come there tooI want to be with you I'm just waiting until you say these words;
"Comme back, come back, come back, Oh to me ..."I'm living near Gdnsk, there's a train, you'd be here soon
There's a life for me and you
The East means so many things but it could be home; it could be home, it could be home, it could be home,
For you and me
it could be home,it could be home,it could be home, it could be home,"Come back, Comme back, Comme back, Oh to me ..."
And if you'd ever say those words
I'd come to you, where you are
It's too hard to be apart
The East's not so far awayAnd it could be home, it could be home, And it could be home, And it could be home
Come back. Come Back, Come back
Oh, to me...
