

Six Hundred Sixty-Six

Fisher

Sell my soul - I'll sell my soul I've nothing left to lose Hurt myself - I'll hurt myself cover my face with tattoos all of painted tears - one for each year that only could have been Anything I can do to keep you underneath my skin Chorus:
Over and over I tell myself
If there's no you there's nobody else and I'd rather be lonely - I'd rather die
six hundred sixty-six times By myself - I'm not myself I can't be without you An empty shell - my former self is out looking to find you
Over and over I tell myself
If there's no you there's nobody else and I'd
rather be lonely - I'd rather die
six hundred sixty-six times
