

Foreign Country

Bleeding Hearts Syndicate

So you can approach me,
Turn me on,
Its so damn easy And you can touch me
Deep down
And still know nothing My heart is a foreign country,
A foreign land
And thats where I belong With all the bridges Ive burnt
Am I an island? My heart is a foreign country,
A foreign land
A foreign country,
A foreign land
And thats where I belong So we take some time
Standing face to face,
Speakin out our hearts
But still cant work it out
So again we sever,
Feeling so sad and wise
But I guess well learn
When comes our turn A foreign country,
A foreign land
My heart is a foreign country,
A foreign land
And thats where I belong
