

Liza

Zoe Elliot

Liza, put a smile upon your face,
I want to see you glow, so let your essence show
Amongst the people who are down like me,
Amongst the people who are down like me.

Liza, when your heads above the clouds,
You have this grace and air, I love to join you there
So I can get above these troubles and see whatâ€™s more to see,
I can get above and see whatâ€™s more to see.

And you dance with your shadow
As the sun it warms your core
Your blue eyes on the blue sky capture so much more
You donâ€™t worry â€™bout the clouds
For the rain is welcome too, doo doo doo
Every morning the sun rises for you.

Liza, there is magic in you eyes,
You love to breathe life in, no care to lose or win
You make a game as you walk down the street,
Oh you make a game as you walk down the street.

Liza, how I long to walk like you,
You walk like lifeâ€™s a dance, and every steps a chance
As you carry the world upon your smile
Oh, you carry the world upon your smile.

And you dance with your shadow
As the sun it warms your core
Your blue eyes on the blue sky capture so much more
You donâ€™t worry â€™bout the clouds
For the rain is welcome too, doo doo doo
Every morning the sun rises for you.
Doo doo doo, every morning the sun rises for you.
