What Is My Role

Edwyn Collins

If I think too hard then I can feel like no one though
I'd rather be alone than with people I don't know
'Cause I can't walk in character, I can't act in any way
I don't feel as close to God as you do every daySometimes I'm up, sometimes I'm down
Sometimes I wonder what is my role
Sometimes I'm up, sometimes I'm down
Sometimes I wonder what is my roleWhat is my role? What is my role?
What is my role? What is my role?If I think too hard then nothing seems to fit
I believe that we suffer just for the sake of it
And I can't walk in character, I can't act in any way
I don't feel as close to God as you do every daySometimes I'm up, sometimes I'm down
Sometimes I wonder what is my role
Sometimes I'm up, sometimes I'm down
Sometimes I wonder what is my roleWhat is my role? What is my role?
What is my role? What is my role?
What is my role?Sometimes I'm up, sometimes I'm down
Sometimes I wonder what is my role
Sometimes I'm up, sometimes I'm down
Sometimes I wonder what is my roleWhat is my role? What is my role?
What is my role? What is my role?
What is, what is, what is my role?
What is, what is, what is my role?What is my role? What is my role?
What is, what is, what is my role?

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/