Crash and Burn

Bronte

I've been waiting
Come here and talk to me
I've been thinking
Over realityYou're sly in your head
But not to meEveryone wants only the truth, but see
No one wants to tell it and honestly
I can't stand to lie but that's just meSo baby it's over
Everything we were and could ever be
Knowing you told her
Every little nothing you said to me
Baby you're charming
But it ain't enough and you'll never learn
You'll only be sorry the day
That you crash and burnYou don't know me
But you pretend you do
You act so familiar
We're strangers, dudeAll you did for me was all for you
Cause whatever you do it's all for youSo baby it's over
Everything we were and could ever be
Knowing you told her
Every little nothing you said to me
Baby you're charming
But it ain't enough and you'll never learn
You'll only be sorry the day
That you crash and burn, oh, yeah yeah
No, no, no-oh, just crash and burn, ohOver, guess I'm just another bad memory
And if you're so bitter, just light a cigarette when you think of meBaby it's over
Everything we were and could ever be
Does it feel cold
Or does being cold blooded come naturally
Baby you're charming
But it ain't enough and you'll never learn
You'll only be sorry the day
Yeah tell me you're sorry the day
That you crash and burnI could make you say you regret it but I can't make you mean it unfortunately
You're not... sorry

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/