Now that you're gone, well the days they pass without meaning.
and the minutes seem like hours.

The time we shared has now slipped away.

To a day, where we are never together.

And the nights. * Where we laid together.

In heated love from dusk till dawn.

Well I don't think, that I could ever make it, without you all on my own

But we'll get back together. Our love is just too strong to die.

But now I'm just stuck with memories, it just ain't fair, it just ain't fair.

Now that you're gone. Well the days they pass without meaning.

And the minutes seem like hours.

And all the blue skies that we once ran under together

Has slowly turned in to thundershowers

But we'll get back together. Our love is just too strong to die.

Now I'm just stuck with memories, it just ain't fair, it just ain't fair.
