Happy

Fischerspooner

Maybe I could fall
Baby, I could fall apart
To conceal, to protect
To serve and to rejectIm turning into something
Go all the way to the right
Im goin' past, Im goin' past
Im goin' past the next two lightsHit the streets, they talk to me
A fickle beast whos nice today
Its such a waste, another day
Such a waste, but it feels greatEverything has taken a turn
In disguise as what I want
I can leave her, I can leave her
But I keep coming back for moreIm turning into something
Go all the way to the right
Im goin' past, Im goin' past
Im goin' past the next two lightsHit the streets, they talk to me
A fickle beast whos nice today
Its such a waste, another day
Such a waste, but it feels greatHit the streets, they talk to me
A fickle beast whos nice today
Its such a waste, another day
Such a waste, but it feels greatHit the streets, they talk to me
A fickle beast whos nice today
Its such a waste, another day
Such a waste, but it feels great todayIt may be a waste another day
It feels great, it feels great
It may be a waste another day
But it feels great, it feels greatIt may be a waste another day
But it feels great, it feels great
