Today

Triggerfinger

Today is the day, I tried to get away, yeah
In this place, I'll never find myself again
Today is the day, I tried to get away, yeah
I go as far as I can without a map or a master planToday is the day that I'm leaving this place
I get out of your face
I stay, I'm away for good
I get out of your hoodI said today is the day I quit my playin'
In this place, I'll never find myself again
There's no point in sticking around trying to stay here
Too much pricks and to do and I don't know where to beginToday is the day that I'm leaving this place
I get out of your face
I stay, I'm away for good
I get out of your hoodToday I'm leaving this place
I get out of your face
I stay, I'm away for good
I get out of your hoodEvery day, single day
Every day, I get away
Every day, single day
Every day, I get awayEvery day, I get away
Every day, I get away
Every day, I get away
Every day, I get awayToday is the day that I'm leaving the place
Get out of your face
And I stay away for good
I get out of your hoodToday I'm leaving this place
Get out of your face
And I stay away for good
I get out of your hood
