One from the Other Side

Sense Field

One from the other side takes two from the other side
One from the other side takes two from the other side
One from the other side takes two from the other side
One from the other side takes two from the other sidePeace be with you, can I please be with you?
Can I please be with you, can I please be with you?
Because the earth is round they don't fall in
Because the earth is round they don't fall in
They don't fall in, they don't fall inOne from the other side takes two from the other side
One from the other side takes two from the other side
One from the other side takes two from the other side
One from the other side takes two from the other sidePeace be with you, can I please be with you?
Can I please be with you, can I please be with you?
Because the earth is round they don't fall in
Because the earth is round they don't fall in
They don't fall in, they don't fall down
