

I Am The Rain

Pete Doherty

I am the rain
Held in disdain
Lotions and potions just add to my fame
The rime that in Spain
Fall on the plain
The truth is I'm ruthless
I can't be contained. I'm the rain My friend the wind
To breathe he is twinned
Blow high or low high
Tornadoes to spin My mother the cloud
In widow's black shroud
Gives birth to the earth
Before fields can be plowed Up in the sky, we've demand to supply
I am necessity, base of the recipe I'm the rain My cousin the snow
Lays blankets below
States that her falkes are
The threads to the soul My rival the sun
Who ripens the plum
Is feared and revered
He gives sight to the gun Up in the sky, we've demand to supply
I am necessity, base of the recipe Up in the sky, we've demand to supply
I am necessity, base of the recipe I am the rain, am the rain I am the rain, who's held in disdain
The truth is I'm ruthless, I can't be contained...
