

Caribbean War Syndrome

Twin Atlantic

Once in a while
For a few days
We must fight
Amongst the brave
Live for your sword
'Cause we are at war

I always come alive, you always come to life
Come on, come on (kill it all, kill it all)
And we are never gonna be the same
I always come alive, you always come to life

If you like, if you like the Caribbean
Come and dive
There's a sea that you can swim in
Bring a knife
There's a life that you can finish
Open up sing along to what you're fate is
If you like, if you like the Caribbean
If you like, if you like the Caribbean

Take me away
Away from my home
Yes I love my country
A decision on my own
You gave me the choice
A projection of voices
I always come alive, you always come to life
Come on, come on (kill it all, kill it all and)
I would rather just stay the same
I always come alive, you always come to life

Yes
We can fight the guitar (future)
(Push in our eyes) And fall asleep

I always come alive, you always come to life
I always come alive, you always come to life
I always come alive, you always come to life
I always come alive, you always come to life

I always come alive, you always come to life

Still it always comes back to am I on your side

I always come alive, you always come to life

I always come alive, you always come to life

Still it always comes back to

Are we are still alive

I always come alive, you always come to life

I always come alive, you always come to life

You always come to life

This campaign is criminal, criminal

I scream your fucking insane

Bring me the contract

Sign me up to

Blow these fuckers away
