If Summer Ends

Lacrosse

Cry if you wanna cry there's no one stop than you but I'm leaving my tears behind I believe in everything and I don't know where to stopI'm not sure how to slow downFly if you wanna fly there's no one holden you this is the first time and it's knew
and I don't know where to startIm not sure how to slow down
...but it's nice!
