

Kiss And Tell

You Me At Six

you're so good
and you're so bad that everybody wants to be your man you're so good
and you're so bad
that everybody wants to be... in your hair and under your skin.
in those clothes and on those lips, but me!
kiss and tell everybody else that you're at your best when I'm making, making baby steps you make the rules up as you go so I've gone and made some of my own
you make the rules up as you go I am gonna send some of your love home what did you expect from me I said there's so much more you won't see what did you expect from me I said I am smarter than him you see

kiss and tell everybody else that you're at you best when I'm making baby steps and I'm sick and tired of being the good guy oh I've done my time
you should hit the back of the line I know you don't need to tell me (x12)
I know you don't
I know you don't need to tell me, tell me (x2)
kiss and tell everybody else when you're at your best when I'm making baby steps
oh I've done my time
you should hit the back of the line

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>