

Lay Your Head Down

R5

Lay your head down with me, darling
Pick your heart up off the floor
If you need some, give me something
I know, yeah, I know Lay your head down, so you hide, a drug for my eyes
I been needing something, needing something a little too much
Slow down, anytime, you don't need to rush
I been drinking something, drinking something, maybe a little too much
'Cause all my days were like they were so lonely
Like I couldn't take it much longer, baby, oh, baby
So tell me, baby, do you feel like I do all your cravings?
Someone to hold you and 'til the sun comes up and starts to set
Lay your head down with me, darling
Pick your heart up off the floor
If you need some, give me something
I know, yeah, I know
Lay your head down with me, darling
Pick your heart up off the floor
If you need some, give me something
I know, yeah, I know Face down, Calvin Klein, her bank don't need love
I've been dreaming so much, you've been dreaming so much, maybe a little too much
Flow down to a Nile, the rum is died blue
I been drinking something, been drinking something, maybe a little too much
They days just seem, keeping me high, high enough to carry
Give me stories to go, oh, baby, oh, baby
So tell me, baby, feeling the love that I feeling lately
Know where I'll be as soon the sun comes up and starts to set
Lay your head down with me, darling
Pick your heart up off the floor
If you need some, give me something
I know, yeah, I know
Lay your head down with me, darling
Pick your heart up off the floor
If you need some, give me something
I know, yeah, I know 'Cause all my days seem like they were getting so lonely lately
I couldn't take it much longer, baby, oh, baby Lay your head down with me, darling
Pick your heart up off the floor
If you need some, give me something
I know, yeah, I know
Lay your head down with me, darling

Pick your heart up off the floor
If you need some, give me something
I know, yeah, I know
