Three Days Later

FM Static

I made a wish on a shooting star once
But it?s been so long
Never did believe it ?til
You showed up there
And proved me wrong
Everyone is here and they?re all
Cheering to the end of another day

It?s Friday night, everyone?s asleep
And now we?re walking home
Our shadows grow underneath the streetlights
?Til they?re over grown
A perfect end to a perfect night
And I feel so alright

One,
She makes me feel not too much like anything
That?s three times more than I?ve ever felt before
1 AM and I?m too sucked in
?Cause it?s three days later
I can?t stop thinking about you

Call up your friends and
Let?s go down to the beach
Bring your stereo and all your favorite CD?s
We?ll bring out the guitars
Sit on top of our cars
And sing the night away
Just like rock stars
It?s wide open, everyone?s scopin?
Hoping to have a night when nothing gets broken
I will believe in you tonight
Oh, I?ll believe in you tonight

One,
She makes me feel not too much like anything
That?s three times more than I?ve ever felt before
1 AM and I?m too sucked in
?Cause it?s three days later

I can?t stop thinking about you

One,
She makes me feel not too much like anything
That?s three times more than I?ve ever felt before
1 AM and I?m too sucked in
?Cause it?s three days later
I can?t stop thinking about you

One,
She makes me feel not too much like anything
That?s three times more than I?ve ever felt before
1 AM and I?m too sucked in
?Cause it?s three days later
I can?t stop thinking about you
