

Tough Cookie (feat. Don Mills)

ZICO

Hello all you idiots who still look at me with that sour attitude
I'm sorry but Block B has been sweeping charts
Grabbing trophies without any manipulation, I made it Getting recruited for concerts, being asked for a featuring
It's too much to reject it all
Top idol rapper? Fuck I ain't no snake's head
My competition is somewhere else, nothing in this broadcasting station
JTONG hyung used to be my hater but now recruited me into Buckwilds
During the lawsuit, several big entertainment companies contacted me
Honestly, I like a naturally growing environment
Company care? No thanks
With no finger food to eat, I kept going and now I'm totally gone, drunk man
I'll make your underwear wet, don't ever dry it
There's no expiration date to my walk, won't ever rest
You confess, "you have no peak" why?
My flow is a bit strong, the situation is over
Draw attention, washing my tainted name that was reduced by criticism
I play a part in Hallyu but receive looks of respect too I'm not your friend
I'm not your family either
I'm not your colleague
Chew me the wrong way and your teeth might go out Cause I'm a Tough Cookie, Tough Cookie, Tough Cookie
Tough Cookie, Tough Cookie, Tough Cookie
Cause I'm a Tough Cookie, Tough Cookie, Tough Cookie
Chew me the wrong way and your teeth might go out Friends, are you listening? Yeah I made it
I did what I had to do so in the end, I made it
In the past, I got fired in just one day or worked without pay for months
All the bosses, are you listening? Yeah I made it If you write it, the lyrics are like dog shit but when I write it, it overflows with character
You put on a mask and you put in energy, I overflow with power and you're just a gimmick
You can put a lot of effort into it and release it but they just go on to the next track
You fool, you pretend to be strong but you're just weak Don Mills, hating me, saying that I'm networking to do hip-hop
Don Mills, started in Korea without a single connection
Don Mills, I do my own PR for my own song
Don Mills, I spread my own name Time is gold, you can't waste it
I release an album and now a strong featuring
Finally, I hear my name from here and there
What's my name that is heard from here and there? Don Mills I'm not your friend
I'm not your family either

I'm not your colleague
Chew me the wrong way and your teeth might go outCause I'm a Tough Cookie, Tough Cookie, Tough Cookie
Tough Cookie, Tough Cookie, Tough Cookie
Cause I'm a Tough Cookie, Tough Cookie, Tough Cookie
Chew me the wrong way and your teeth might go outBefore a Music Core MC, I'm just an MC
My idol debut is an advantage to you
But all you waddling penguins will get hurt if you go overboard
Rappers these days don't have the skills so they all have a snap back fetish
You're such a faggot bitchYou can keep trying to cut me down but I'll just be sculpted better
This isn't ambition, my frequency invades your erogenous zones
I can't acknowledge the acknowledgment I received from Tablo and Gaeko
I can't see my achievement deficiency disorder going away
Like I can't see the freckles going away on my skin
All the singer songwriters in the overflowing groups
Groundless underground experience viral
Piss off, go pee somewhere else
This is my turf, you just go fuck yourself
Before you diss this business, let me see you piece
You can't even compromise with those skills
You live a single-lens life so you naturally just don't work2
If you wanna diss the big name singers, go ahead, touch me first
Or just shrivel up before I sprinkle the saltI'm not your friend
I'm not your family either
I'm not your colleague
Chew me the wrong way and your teeth might go outCause I'm a Tough Cookie, Tough Cookie, Tough Cookie
Tough Cookie, Tough Cookie, Tough Cookie
Cause I'm a Tough Cookie, Tough Cookie, Tough Cookie
Chew me the wrong way and your teeth might go out
