

The Curse That Keeps on Giving

Solution .45

On ghostlike fields
Under a strange sky
Cannot cross the void
No matter how hard I try And so this nothing becomes
My all (my fall?)
Through which I have to crawl The curse that keeps on giving
A fire without a flame
The curse that keeps on giving
A changing that stays the same
Used skeleton key
There's no setting free
Told to be forever
Standing the test of time
Will not let it ride
Yet turning aside
Innermost rain shadow reaching
The end of the line [Lead: Gardberg/StefanoviÄ†
