

The Girl Is On to You

Bette Midler

I'll bet you think you can
Just use her the way, you used to do
I got news for you, your fuse is out
The girl is on to you I'll bet you think you can abuse her
And say you love her too
I remember pain you put her through
But the girl is on to you She's grown much wiser than you realize
She will surprise you, no more paying for your lies And I'll bet you think you can confuse her
But, hey the loser is you
She sees through your eyes, you'll soon surmise
The girl is on to you She's grown much wiser than you realize
She will surprise you, no more paying for your lies Oh, and I'll bet you think you can confuse her
But, hey the loser is you
She sees through your eyes, you'll soon surmise
Girl is on to you
She sees through your eyes, you'll soon surmise
The girl is on to you She's on, she's on, she's on
She's on, she's on, she's on
She's on, she's on, she's on
The girl is on to you She's on, she's on, she's on
Now she's gone, she's gone, she's gone I'll bet you think she'll come running back to you
Just like she used to do
But the girl is awful strong
That's why the girl is gone, gone, gone, gone
Gone, gone, gone, gone, gone
