

The Ending

Ellie Goulding

If you lock me out...
If you lock me out...
If you lock me out...
If you lock me out...
If you lock me out...Im living on the wild side
Ive never seen a footprint
In the land of rivers
Youre my only bridgeAnd I feel the fear in me
And I dont wanna fall asleep
When I turn into someone else
I know that it cant be beatIf you lock me out...
If you lock me out...
If you lock me out...
If you lock me out...If you lock me out...
If you lock me out...
If you lock me out...
If you lock me out...If you lock...
If you lock...
If you lock...
If you lock...
If you lock...Will you know who I am?
Will you know who you are?Will you know who I am?
Will you know who you are?I think Ive been praying
The lights wont go out
My blood is getting colder
As I follow this road downIf you lock me out... (There wont be anything to hold)
If you lock me out... (There wont be anything to hold on to)
If you lock me out... (There wont be anyone in the end)
If you lock me out... (There wont be anyone in the ending)If you lock me out... (There wont be anything to hold)
If you lock me out... (There wont be anything to hold on to)
If you lock me out... (There wont be anyone in the end)
If you lock me out... (There wont be anyone in the ending)
