

Death to Gaia

Cancerslug

you are the cancer of the world so do your fucking job building tumors of concrete and steel fill that whore mother natures lungs with smog
death to gaia
take pride in the horror you bring to a life thats already ost there is nothing wrong with dieing doing what you love so kill the world at any cost
death to gaia
there is no turning back the job is already done so lets blow this fucker up and create a star that is brighter than the sun
death to gaia
dig a hole to the planets core take it to the mothers cunt its never easy to be a disease but it sure is fucking fun
