Like a Weight

The Jungle Giants

So I sat on your floor
While you laid in your bed
You told me some more
Of these tears in your headIt hurts and it feels
Feels like I'm dead
I can't see your eyes
Behind all those threadsSo I silently spoke
Through a crack in the door
The things so familiar
Are coming no moreGoodbye my dear
Like a weight I can shake
Who knows if you'll hear
Another breath that I'll take
Days come and go
And this loving was slow
So now that it's closed
What have you to show?Goodbye my dear
Like a weight I can shake
Who knows if you'll hear
Another breath that I'll take
Days come and go
And this loving was slow
So now that it's closed
What have you to show?Goodbye my dear
Like a weight I can shake
Who knows if you'll hear
Another breath that I'll take
